Project
Global Elections
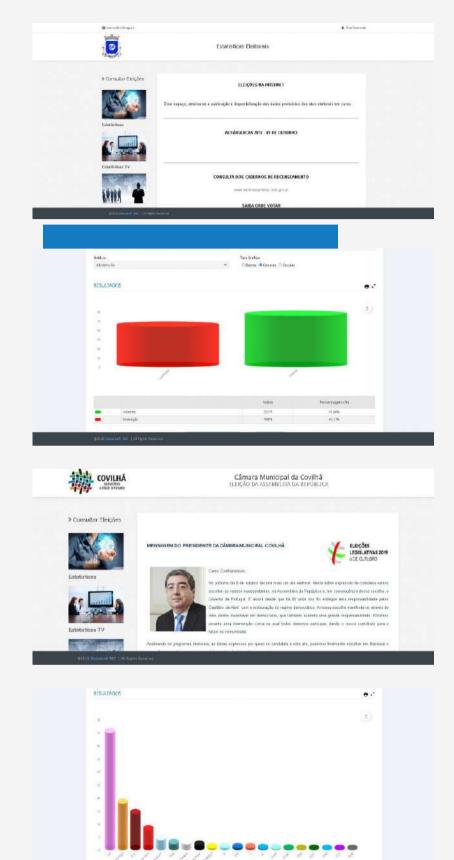

Global Elections Project

The Global Elections Project is a software intended for Municipalities and consists of a work tool to support the process of preparing and counting an electoral act.

From this operations center, it's possible to automatically create all the official letters and notices required by law, organize vote stations, publish advertising locations and publish the electoral results to the population in real-time.
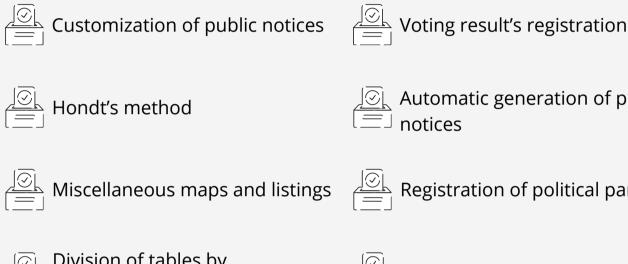

REAL-TIME RESULTS

FEATURES

Customization of public notices

Voting result's registration

Hondt's method

Automatic generation of public notices

Miscellaneous maps and listings

Registration of political parties

Division of tables by Municipality

Registration of candidates

Maintenance of table member data

Constitution of polling stations

Contacts

LISBON
Alverca – Vila Franca de Xira
+351 960 184 640
geral@twist-consulting.pt